

T5 GALLERY

London | Heathrow

Heathrow

Since the award winning T5 Art Gallery opened nine years ago, it has become an important part of the culture and experience of Heathrow Terminal 5.

As the only permanent commercial fine art gallery in the world to be situated in an airport, it is in a unique position to reach and introduce art to a wide international audience.

The key objectives of the gallery are: to showcase and support established artists, to help develop the careers of young emerging talent, to offer clients not only outstanding works but the experience of its team in the fields of curating and consultancy.

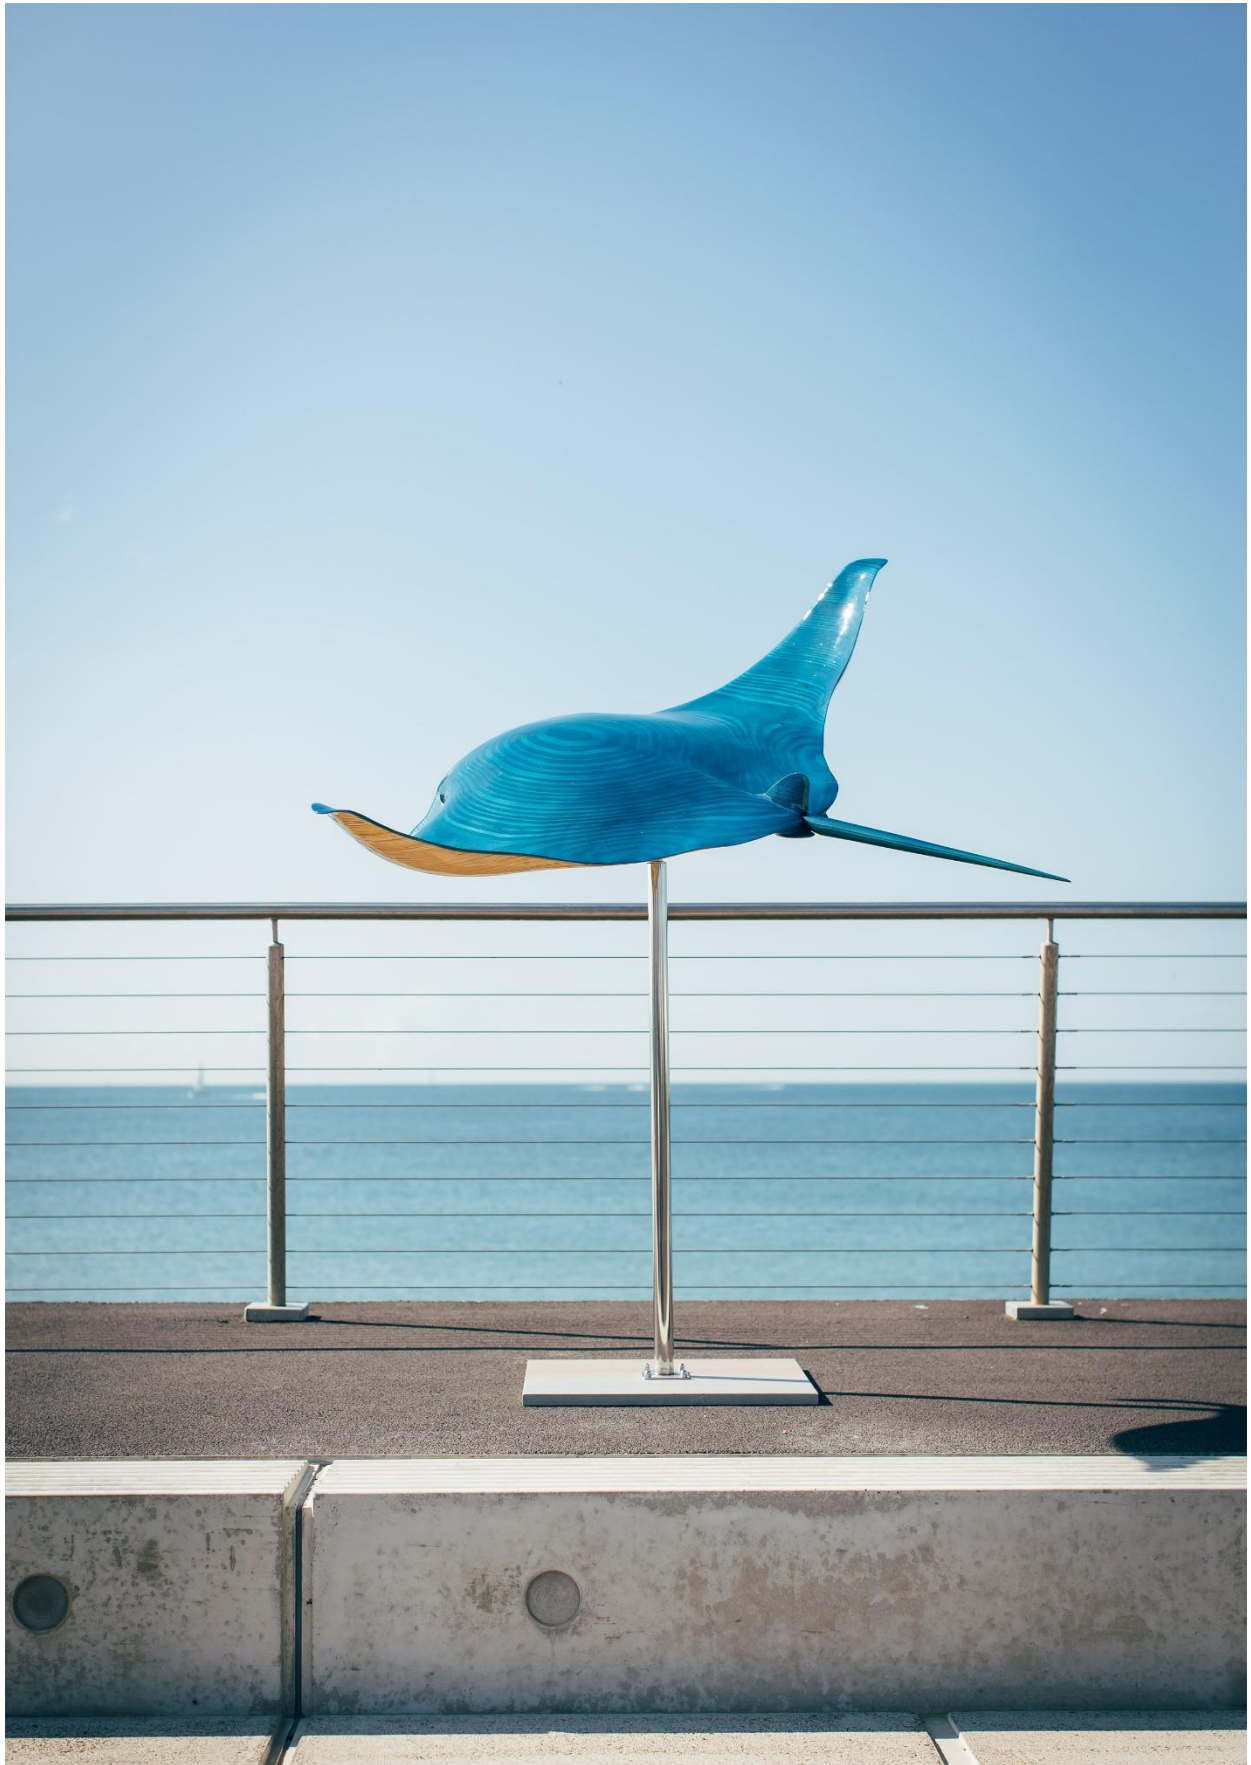

Andy Baerselman

Andy Baerselman has a passion for wood which is matched by his love of the natural world. A background in engineering has also figured greatly in the way he transforms wood into sculpture, with the relationships between science and nature becoming central to his work.

Andy has worked on several private commissions, along with producing work for the National Trust.

Numerous pieces have been placed on Super Yachts by Award Winning Mark Berryman Yacht Design.

Andy is also currently working on a long-term commission project for a major financial institution in Beijing, China.
