

T5 GALLERY

London | Heathrow

Heathrow

Since the award winning T5 Art Gallery opened nine years ago, it has become an important part of the culture and experience of Heathrow Terminal 5.

As the only permanent commercial fine art gallery in the world to be situated in an airport, it is in a unique position to reach and introduce art to a wide international audience.

The key objectives of the gallery are: to showcase and support established artists, to help develop the careers of young emerging talent, to offer clients not only outstanding works but the experience of its team in the fields of curating and consultancy.

British painter Jeremy Houghton tackles a range of subjects, with most of his work focused on capturing movement. His practice blends an interest in the dynamic potential of sports, the visual rhythm of migrating birds, and the everyday life of communities defined by tradition.

Houghton divides his time between studio-based work and documentary residencies.

Jeremy has completed artist residencies for the 2017 Wimbledon Tennis Championships, Land Rover Ben Ainslie Racing at the America's Cup in 2016, at Goodwood for the Earl of March in 2015 and at Windsor Castle for Her Majesty The Queen in 2014.
